

Çavdır

Çavdır dates back to the Seljuk Period. Çavdır was already a municipality since the very first years of the Turkish Republic, eventually announced a district in 1990. Its current population is 12,748.

The mosque in Bölmeşinar (Dengere) village is a leading component of the historical and cultural heritage of the region, although the date of construction is unknown.

There are many facilities in Çavdır which welcomes its visitors with delicious breakfasts.

Ağustos 2021/5 bin adet

The historical Dengere Mosque located in Bölmeşinar village of Çavdır is one of the art works of the Ottoman Period. It carries the deep traces of history to present with its qualified woodwork.

REPUBLIC OF TURKEY
BURDUR GOVERNORSHIP

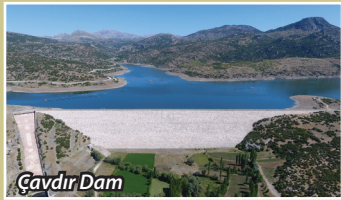

Ph: +90 248 233 10 79 • Fax: +90 248 233 86 77
E-mail: burdur@burdur.gov.tr • www.burdur.gov.tr

Burdur Çavdır

www.burdur.gov.tr

Çavdır

Çavdır largely has a forested land. It accommodates many natural beauties including mountains such as Rahat, Çavdır, Pazar and Koçaş, and plateaus such as Rahat, Kozağaç, Yazır, Bayındır, Kızıllar, Küçük Alan and Anbarcık. Yazır Lake, Çavdır and Kozağaç Dams as well as Çavdır and Sögüt Ponds are other beauties in the region.

Çavdır is a district famous for agriculture and animal breeding. The well-known Sögüt tomato has received geographical indication. Çavdır is also known as the largest animal market in the Lake District bringing buyers and sellers together from many parts of our country.

